

Call to the Sea

I call to the sea
Oh, can you hear me?
I want to know
The wisdom beyond the shore
The waves are telling me you're near
When this is what I hear:

"You are never alone
Call me and I will come
To share my song with you
And you will share yours too

We are never alone
All connected to the One
And when we see with our hearts
We will all return back home.... to love"

Can you see
The change from within me
Worlds do unfold
Stories to be told
And you show me how it's done
In the Now we share the One

Chorus

Love
Love's you and me
We're the waves and the sea
Ride into the light
All in One and side by side

And now I sing you my song
May it leave you feeling strong

Chorus

Love
Love's you and me
We're the waves and the sea
